This week @ Kensington

It's been a funny week with the Bank Holiday and the elections. We've made the most of the time we've had with lots of great learning opportunities for your children. Next week we have our KS2 SATs, which all of the children have been working very hard towards this year. We are confident that they will do extremely well. I would like to wish them all the very best. We are proud of all their hard work and commitment.

We are currently developing our plans for 2016-17. I know that Ms Amin has been speaking to some of you already. If you have ideas or suggestions for how to further develop the school in the coming year then we would love to hear them. Please e-mail us at parents@kensington.newham.sch.uk by Friday 20th May with any ideas or speak to Ms Amin.
